

Dr. Davis is currently the chief medical officer for Memphis Health Center which among his many other duties includes providing clinical care for the Ryan White HIV program and the clinical champion Patient Centered Medical Home. Dr. Davis has more than a decade of experience as a medical director or chief medical officer of the managed care Medicaid insurance plan spanning from TLC to Amerigroup to Blue Cross Blue Shield blue care. Dr. Davis also the host of the "Improving Your Health with Dr. Clarence Davis" radio show now running on its seventh year. He is the innovator of a new patient engagement project in collaboration with Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare Congregational Health Network called " Walking with The Doctor Class" a twelve month long interactive two hours long sessions on empowerment and wellness. He is board-certified in internal medicine he's also a member of the American College of Physicians and the American College of Emergency Physicians professional societies. He has been a volunteer physician with Church Health Center more than 10 years. He is also a member of the board National Kidney Foundation of West Tennessee. He is past president of the board of Ballet Memphis and current member of the board. Dr. Davis is also married and the proud father of five children.